DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 5 and 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a. The following claims are vague, indefinite, confusingly and awkwardly worded:

i. "it" has been recited in claims 5 and 9-12. The limitation must positively be recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yonezawa (6095509).

Yonezawa disclose a clamping device having a clamp body (4) with a cylinder bore, a pull rod with tapered portion (12), a collet member (13) with a bottom which is annular collet, a hydraulic cylinder (5), a lower annular cylinder chamber (17) with the upper holding spring (27), and a piston member (20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 3723

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-5 and 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yonezawa (6095509) in view of Kawakami (6598713).

b. Yonezawa is discussed above.

c. Yonezawa does not disclose a plurality of springs.

d. Kawakami discloses a clamp with a plurality of springs (44&45) being nested within each other which allows a single spring to be replaced by the plurality without require addition space to house the springs.

e. It would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified the Yonezawa device by replacing the spring with a plurality of springs as taught by Kawakami which allows a single spring to be replaced by the plurality without require addition space to house the springs.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kitaura discloses a device.
